All the Time In the World

Shane Nicholson

Something's crawling on my back
And digging holes in my head
Something's climbing through the crack
And hiding under the bedAll you can do without
Cut it up and let it out
Good, bad and strangeWith all the time in the world
You won't find a thing
That you couldn't love
And if you can changeSomething's living in my home
And taking up all my space
Something's breathing on it's own
And wearing my look on it's faceAll you've learned about
Rip it up and let it out
Good, bad and strangeWith all the time in the world
You won't find a thing
That you couldn't love
If you can changeAnd if you can change
If you could change
If you could changeAll you can do without
Cut it up and let it out
Good, bad and strangeWith all the time in the world
You won't find a thing
That you couldn't loveAll the time in the world
You won't find a thing
That you couldn't love
And if you can changeAll the time in the world
All the time in the world
You could love if you could changeAll the time in the world
All the time in the world
You could love if you could changeAll the time in the world
All the time in the world
You could love if you could changeAll the time in the world
All the time in the world
(If you could change)
If you could changeAll the time in the world
(If you could change)
All the time in the world
(If you could change)
If you could change, changeAll the time in the world

All the time in the world
