Say Goodbye

Jordan Knight

Yeah
I've been so lost lately
I don't really understand baby
Where did I go wrong
I wanna talk to you
Please callWhere do I begin with you
After all that we've been through
I don't think that it would be right if we Got together so suddenlyI wish that I could take back all the things that I said
And replace them with simply I love you insteadYou don't wanna say goodbye
But you never really seem like you wanna tryBut I only wanted you to stay
Then I let you just slip awayIf you didn't listen to your heart inside
Then it really doesn't matter what was on your mind
And if you need me then tell me whyGirl, I never meant to say goodbye
Mmm Oh yeahI think about the past baby
Why we couldn't make it last, lady
I know you still have doubts
But I'm gonna prove that we can work things outI wanna be sure that you know what you put me through
And reveal that you intend to never let me down againIt's clear to me and I can't ignore
That I have to give you something I couldn't beforeYou don't wanna say goodbye
But you never really seem like you wanna tryBut I only wanted you to stay
Then I let you just slip awayIf you didn't listen to your heart inside
Then it really doesn't matter what was on your mind
And if you need me then tell me whyGirl, I never meant to say goodbyeI didn't think that we would come to thisOh, no
Your eyes, your face, your smile is what I missWhy'd you wait so long to take me backIt's all a simple misunderstandingYou don't wanna say goodbye
But you never really seem like you wanna try (Never wanna try)But I only wanted you to stay
Then I let you just slip awayIf you didn't listen to your heart inside
Then it really doesn't matter what was on your mind
And if you need me then tell me whyGirl, I never meant to say goodbyeYou don't wanna say goodbye
But you never really seem like you wanna try (But I never meant to say)But I only wanted you to stay
Then I let you just slip awayIf you didn't listen to your heart inside (Never meant to see you cry, never meant to say)
Then it really doesn't matter what was on your mind
And if you need me then tell me whyGirl, I never meant to say goodbye
