

The Warning

Kaihoro

You can tell your aim to me
I will ban them all
The fact you need to know is that
I'm gonna break the wallI have no faintness
With the virtue I was born
I'll scream for vengeance
Put on the crown of thornYou're going down, down, down
I can see the truth
You're going down, down, down
You've turned your back to me
You're going down, down, down
No cover under the sun
You're going down, down, downI'll give you advices (sic)
Not for getting aftermath
My tool of displeasure
Will feed the current bloodbath
If you keep your loyalty
Then I'll reward you well
But when I smell defection
I'll curse you to hell
