

I Love It

Craig Morgan

Here she comes two hours late
But that girls always worth the wait
Yeah, and I love itShe's got a tiny shirt on wrong side out
She makes left to center seem right somehow
Oh, and I love itShe's got a way
Of being nonchalant
Kinda quirky, everything I'm notShe's so un-ordinary
So unpredictable, it's scary
And I think I've got more
Than what I bargained forBut I keep coming
Back for more of it
'Cuz I love itShe's got two tattoos
One's on her back
And I ain't sayin' where the other ones at Yeah, but I love itShe don't own a dress
But she's a beauty queen
Takes glamor shots in cut off jeans
And I love itBut if there's one thing
That I love the most
It's how she does exactly
What I think she won'tShe's so un-ordinary
So unpredictable, it's scary
And I think I've got more
Than what I bargained forBut I keep coming
Back for more of it
Oh, 'cuz I love itShe's so un-ordinary
So unpredictable, it's scary
Oh, and I think I've got more
Than what I bargained forBut I keep coming
Back for more of it
And I love it, yeah, I love it
