

In This Shirt

The Irrepressibles

I am lost in a rainbow
Now our rainbow is gone
Overcast by your shadow
As our worlds move onIn this shirt I can be you
To be near you for a while
In this shirt I can be you
To be near you for a whileThere's a crane knocking down
All these things that we were
I awake in the night to
Hear the engines poutThere's a pain it does ripple
Through my frame makes me lame
There's a thorn in my side
It's the shame it's the prizeOf you and me ever changing
Moving on now moving fast
And this touch must be wanting
Must become free to actBut I mean dare to tell you
That I love you - it never ends
And I bled everyday now
For a year for a yearI did send you a note
On the wind for to read
Our names there together
Must've fallen like the seaTo depths of the soil
Buried deep in the ground
On the wind I can hear you
Call my name held the soundI am lost
I am lost in a rainbow
Now our rainbow is gone
I am lost in a rainbow
Now our rainbow is goneI am lost, I am lost
I am lost, I am lost
I am lost
