

Thug Cry

Tinashe

Let me be the one to put your love on speed
Let me feng shui your shit
It tastes way better when you don't think you need it
Bet you ain't never felt 3 am feel like this like the, no
Like the moons collided diamonds baby can we score There's something 'bout you
Baby we got to
Give it all that we got for the moment I can make a thug cry, tonight
Watch me make a thug cry, tonight
Cause that's how true love is supposed to be ain't it
When it feels so good it shakes all your belief, baby
I can make thug cry, tonight
I can make a thug cry, tonight Let me turn your pain into a kiss, yeah
Baby I can handle it
Baby won't you sip on this here
Go on and relax, we can lay back
When the moons collided diamonds, baby can we soar There's something 'bout you
Baby we got to
Give it all that we got for the moment I can make a thug cry, tonight
Watch me make a thug cry, tonight
Cause that's how true love is supposed to be ain't it
When it feels so good it shakes all your belief, baby
I can make thug cry, tonight
I can make a thug cry, tonight You think you a gangsta
But don't even play
Cause at the end of the day
You love when I call you my bae
Ain't that right?
You're all mine
You acting so gangsta
You swear that ya hard
But I got you wrapped around my finger
Yeah you be thanking the lord
You're all mine
Ain't that right There's something about you
Baby we got to get lost in the moment
You and me only
Thug cry, tonight
Can you hear the thug cry tonight
Oh, tonight
