

I'll Miss the Swimming

Boy With a Fish

I'll miss the swimming
and I'll miss the small of your back and I'll miss
the way you dealt with the past.

I'll miss the trouble
and I'll miss the hole that you dug
and the song
you sang for it from above.

There is nothing right with anything.
There is nothing wrong with you.
All I want is a rear view mirror
and another day or two.

I'll miss the hairline
of the crack that's next to the bed
and the words
that fell down there that you said.

There is nothing right with anything.
There is nothing wrong with you.
All I want is a rear view mirror
and another day or two.
