Life in a Nutshell

The Bears

nearly everything i wanted everything i ever could have dreamed of got it all right here, oh, in a house full of love nearly everything i thought, everything i thought i might try almost all came true, ooh, i'm satisfied so don't cry, don't cry when i die remember me with a smile in my eye it's been a long hard drive and maybe my car caught fire but nearly everything, everything came out fine almost got it, almost have it all but you know you don't run, oh, unless you're willing to fall nearly everything i wanted, everything i ever could have dreamed of got it all right here, oh, in a house full of love that's my life in a nutshell baby, you do what you can do
