Birth

Empyr

It's time to build a new nation this one is about to explode
I lost my mind and my ego
I found my way in other's Hopes but close to you it felt like home,
Like home

I lost my invitation
To the funeral of love
I still believe but I still doubt, beyond my window there are Only Monkeys killing monkeys

Lovers, lovers let the river
Grow and ease the pain
Never, never let them feed
The crows in your head I trusted you,
Will you trust me?
Even if your eyes, start to bleed
I trusted you
Will you trust me?
Even if your eyes, your eyes

Maybe this song could bring you back
Maybe or maybe not
You're my vaccine you're my disease
Beyond my window there are only
Feelings killing feelings

Lovers, lovers let the river
Grow and ease the pain
Never, never let them feed
The crows in your head I trusted you,
Will you trust me?
Even if your eyes, start to bleed
I trusted you
Will you trust me?
Even if your eyes, your eyes

I lost my invitation

to the funeral of your love
I still believe I still doubt
I saw you through the window

I lost my invitation
to the funeral of your love
I still believe I still doubt
I saw you,
I saw you

Lovers, lovers let the river
Grow and ease the pain
Never, never let them feed
The crows in your head I trusted you,
Will you trust me?
Even if your eyes, start to bleed
I trusted you
Will you trust me?
Even if your eyes,
your eyes...
