

Barefootin'

Scotty McCreery

Sand bar, Saturday night
Long necks chilling in a bucket of ice
Sun setting right on time
Seashore dancefloor, baby it's low tide
It seems the band's playing Carolina girls
Girl I'm thinking I should give mine a whirl
Let's do some barefootin', come on
Good looking, kick off them shoes
Let's make tonight a good one
With some slow dancing and some romancing
Shagging in the sand, baby take my hand
Let's do some barefootin', oh, oh
Sundress spinning around, mh-mmh
Making waves in this old beach town
Too many stars to count
We got the motion of the ocean
Going on right now
Let's do some barefootin', come on
Good looking, kick off them shoes
Let's make tonight a good one
With some slow dancing and some romancing
Shagging in the sand, baby take my hand
Let's do some barefootin', whoa, oh
Girl what you say
Let's do some barefootin', whoa, oh
Well this party's rocking
But the coast is clear
Girl what you say we just
Disappear and do some...
And do some barefootin', whoa, oh
Girl what you say
Let's do some barefootin', whoa, oh, yeah
Let's do some barefootin', come on
Good looking, kick off them shoes
Let's make tonight a good one
With some slow dancing and some romancing
Shagging in the sand, baby take my hand
Let's do some barefootin', whoa, oh
Girl what you say
Let's do some barefootin', whoa, oh, yeah
Let's take it down to the beach
Do some barefootin', oh
Slow dancing and some romancing, whoa
What you say girl

Let's do some barefootin'
