Cold

Elton John

You don't love him any more
He threw your rag doll out the door
I keep my distance, I held my breath
Love always ends up hanging by a thread
Love hurts so much
Love leaves a scar
'I don't love you' is like a stake
Being driven through your heart
But I don't care
I came back for you
Love is cruel, but I don't care
I wanted you and I'm cold, cold, cold
You said, "Don't cry to me"
He said, "I'm a dead man if you leave"
I have no feelings, I have no heart
Love always cuts out the warm and tender part
Love hurts so much
Love cuts so deep
It's a hot sweat and a cold shake
Like drowning in your sleep
I don't care
I came back for you
Love is cruel, but I don't care
I wanted you and I'm cold, cold, baby, I'm cold
Love hurts so much
Love leaves a scar
'I don't love you' is like a stake
Being driven through your heart
I don't care
I came back for you
I don't care
I came back for you
Love is cruel, I don't care
I wanted you and I'm cold, cold, cold
I'm cold, cold
So cold, cold
Ohh I'm cold
Honey, I'm cold
So cold

I'm so cold, cold
Ohh I'm cold
I'm so cold
Cold
Ohh I'm so cold, cold
I'm cold, cold
