

Devil Without a Cause

Kid Rock

You knew that I was coming 'cause you heard my name
But you don't know my game and never felt my pain
Can't read my brain but you read my lips
And got scared when you heard that I was coming with hits Now don't even trip, be a man instead
Give thanks I'm alive when I should be dead
I'm in the red 'cause my mind's distortin'
People claimin that they know me, but they only know a portion I'm a move mountains and touch the sun
Don't get scared now, you knew this day would come
So hold your bids, all bets are closed
And fuck all you hoes 'Cause it's been a long time comin'
But I finally broke like an egg yolk, I ain't no joke
Like some uncut dope motherfucker, Kid Rock's to blame
Same game, same name, ain't a damn thing changed No sell-out, I ain't no hoe
Fuck the radio comin' from the R O M E O
Watch me throw like a fist of rage
Self made and paid and sawed off twelve gauges Up that ass for the nine eight
(Nine eight)
Never fake, shake, straight from the Great Lakes
Seven years on wax comin' correct
Flat out you diss me punk, that's when I pull a strap out And I get to buck, buck, bucking a fuck, fuck, fucking your hoes
'Cause they know who's runnin' this shit, top dog, I'm the C E O
Role model, your motherfucking H E R O
My motto, 'Be cool, keep pimpin' Don't sleep, we roll deep in a Lincoln
Four Vogues on a hundred spokes
We bust Biltmore Beavers and Top Dog Coats
We float like butterflies, sting like queen bees Strapped with A-K's straight from the Chinese
What the fuck's goin' on in the D
Bunch of white boys pimpin' like the K I D
And it's all good I got love for my honkeys We roll thick kick ass like donkeys
Anybody fuck's with you and I'm gonna mack 'em
Devil without a cause, I'm going platinum I'm going platinum
I'm going platinum
We're going platinum
Devil without a cause, I'm going platinum
Uh, devil, devil Yeah, we come to party, so get down everybody
(Come on)
Yeah, we come to party I went from St. Claire Shores and drink specials at Winners
To New York City and 700 dollar dinners

From hangin' with sinners and second hand cheap sex
 To gettin' much respect from top record exec's
 The cool Kid's comin' up to call you out
 So shut up now or put my balls in your mouth
 Bet that ass hoss I ain't forgot
 When I was tossed in the dime, baby left to rot
 Used to call me dummy when my nose was fucking runny
 Now my fuckin' bunnies gettin' fuckin' Matchbox 20 money
 Motherfuckers want to claim their down
 But when I was broke and down I never seen them around
 All the shit we talked, all the shit we dreamed
 I did it without you got a brand new team
 No triple beams it seems like a movie
 Bought two cribs, droptop and jacuzzi
 No more fluzzies, only high class hoes
 Couple when it rains and a few when it snows
 A brand new nose to go along with my habit
 And a garden hose made out of 24 karat
 Bought a couple parrots that like to squawk
 And they sound like you and all the shit you talk
 Step inside my shoes, you couldn't fill 'em, doc
 You're too old to kid, too soft to rock
 Already did what most love shout
 Seven years on wax and I still ain't sold out
 And there ain't no doubt in my mind
 That I'm gonna stomp all over you, test of time
 I'm go platinum
 I'm go platinum
 We're going platinum
 Devil without a cause, I'm going platinum
 Uh, devil, come on devil, uh, uh devil
 Straight out of the streets of Taylor
 Three foot high, ready to get fly, Joe C
 I'm the J O E to the C, hoe
 Call me Joe C, got more game than Coleco
 I'm a freak hoe, call me sick
 Three foot nine with a ten foot dick
 The ladies pick, I'm a crazy hick
 And rake through kind like a bum through wine
 It's my time so I'm gonna shine like lead
 Old as piss, but small as ass
 Watch me pass smoke some hash
 You're raking grass while I'm raking cash
 High-ass voice like Aaron Neville
 And I'm down with the devil
 Say we like to party, rock the party
 We like to party, rock the party
 We like to party, rock the party
 We like to party, rock the party
 You like to party, rock the party
 Devil without a cause, I'm going platinum
 Uh, uh, come on, uh, uh, uh, uh
