

Cold and Jaded

Adema

For all of those who have been took
Then you better take another look
Because they're never really what they seem
Try never to betray the only honest man
Ever to set foot upon this promise land
Before you take them by the hand
Love has faded
I thought I'd let you know my true reaction
Cold and jaded
Your true colors show
Love has faded, cold and jaded
You cannot pretend
That there's nothing left to defend
How can you decide who goes and who stays
You talk behind my back
So much that I can't keep track
And you forget about what they need
And then you plant another hate seed
Love has faded
I thought I'd let you know my true reaction
Cold and jaded
Your true colors show
Love has faded, cold and jaded
Soon as they come, they go even faster
Must be destined for familiar disaster
There she goes, there she goes again
Love has faded
I thought I'd let you know my true reaction
Cold and jaded
Your true colors show my true reaction
Love has faded
I thought I'd let you know my true reaction
Cold and jaded
Your true colors show
Love has faded, cold and jaded
Cold and jaded, cold and jaded
Love has faded
Cold and jaded, cold and jaded
