

There's a Girl in the Corner

The Twilight Sad

You're not coming back
You're not coming back from there
She's not coming back
She's not coming back from there There's a girl in the corner
And she's crying for you
Gonna die for you
She's not coming back
She's not coming back from there
And you're not coming back
And you're not coming back again You said you'd leave me and I will forget
I'm more than one and I see how it fights
You thought you love me but you just forget
You rolled in on but not too far
And you're not coming back
And you're not coming back from there To all the boys you knew,
They don't belong outside, outside,
Outside, outside, outside
