The Collapse

BEFORE THE PROPHECY

I saw you get it when you want anything
I gave it to you when you wanted it now
I know you feel like it is close to the end
Staring at me with your back on the ground
I know your world is in my hands
You know I pull the strings
I'd like to see how tall you stand
'Cause if I wanted I could take it away
Get laid out or I'm going to lay you out
Stay down or I'm going to keep you down
I wanted to break, I wanted to burn
I want to bury you until it hurts
And I take, I don't ask
This breath will be your last
Do you feel the collapse?
You feel the pressure as I'm pulling you in You're crumbling under the weight of the game
Before you let it all just go to your head
Now you're praying that you're walking away
You know your world is in my hands
You know I pull the strings
I'd like to see how tall you stand
'Cause if I wanted I could it take it away
Get laid out or I'm going to lay you out
Stay down or I'm going to keep you down
I wanted to break, I wanted to burn
I want to bury you until it hurts
And I take, I don't ask
This breath will be your last
Do you feel the collapse?
I wanted to break, I wanted to burn
I wanted to break, I wanted to burn
I wanted to break, I wanted to burn
I wanted to break, I wanted to burn
Get laid out or I'm going to lay you out
So stay down or I'm going to keep you down
Get laid out or I'm going to lay you out
So stay down or I'm going to keep you down
Get laid out or I'm going to lay you out

Stay down or I'm going to keep you down
I wanted to break, I wanted to burn
I want to bury you until it hurts
And I take, I don't ask
This breath will be your last
Do you feel the collapse?
Do you feel the collapse?
Do you feel the collapse?
