

It Gets Better

fun.

What've we done?
Oh my God
What've we done?
Oh my God This is really happening
You've never looked so bored
Can you feel my fingernails?
They've never been so short It's hard to lay a golden egg
With everyone around
It's hard to stay inside my head
When words keep pouring out Like starlight crashing through the room
We'll lose our feathers
Yes, I know it hurts at first
But it gets better It gets better
It gets better
It gets better
We'll get better
It gets better
It gets better
It gets better
We'll get better I can taste your summer sweat
It's never been so warm
So can we kick the covers off?
They're always on
It's never been so warm It's hard to keep a straight face
When I just want to smile
Wish you could see the look that's in your eyes Like starlight crashing through the room
We'll lose our feathers
Yes, I know it hurts at first
But it gets better It gets better
It gets better
It gets better
We'll get better
It gets better
It gets better
It gets better
We'll get better There's a fire in sky
Some snow in the ground
Not quite enough cigarettes
To calm me down Oh my God

What've we done?
Oh my God
What've we done?
Oh my GodIt gets better
It gets better
It gets better
We'll get better
It gets better
It gets better
It gets better
We'll get betterThis is really happening
This is really happening
