My First Child

Nil Lara

I have a son growing inside
I've seen the response
Of God in me coming to life
Kicking me strong, draining my bloodYou're my first child
I'll show you no harm
I'll teach you my loveWaking at night, wanting caress
I'll keep you warm beside my bed
Together we'll rest, deep in your sleep
My body's your gloveYou're my first child
I'll show you no harm
I'll teach you my loveArrorro mi nio arrorro mi amorSmelling my skin, feeling my face
I'll feed you
Each and every time you cry into space
Holding my hands, clutching my heartYou're my first child
I'll show you no harm
I'll teach you my loveGrowing away
Taking my soulYou're my first child
I'll lose you someday
To some other loveYou're my first child
I'll lose you someday
To some other loveI'll lose you somedayArrorro mi nio arrorro mi amor
Duermete pedazo de mi corazonI'll lose you someday
