

Dream Lover

Saint Etienne

You're a dream lover
It's a deep river And the clock in the hallway
It goes tick, tick, tickin' away, 'way, ah, ah I, I'm gonna dream a little longer now In the late summer
Could it be forever? And I know that a phone call
Is going to take, take, take me away, 'way, oh, oh I, I'm gonna dream a little longer now
Bye, I've gotta dream a little longer now And the clock in the hallway
It goes tick, tick, tickin' away, 'way, ah, ah I, I'm gonna dream a little longer now
And I, I've gotta dream a little longer now
I, I'm gonna dream a little longer now
(I won't let you go)
