

Wait

Nick Chacona

Ain't the world such a loney place
All caught up, I fight the wait.
Am I the one that hides the pain, After all the fights the same.

Wait,

Wait, feel my heart it's slowing down

Wait,

I'm waiting for love cause I need you now.

Heaven must try to steer us right and though it's sad, I lie, the frozen sunshine and crowd rain, I switch reasons, here it comes again.

Wait,

I'm waiting, feel my heart it's slowing down

Wait,

I'm waiting for love cause I need you now

I need you now

(yes.....so I reach for light.....I feel.....nothing)

You know, You know love is hard to find, I don't let me go

I try, I try

Wait

I'm waiting, feel my heart it's slowing down

Wait,

I'm waiting for love, cause I need you now

I need you now

Oh, Oh, (feel my heart) It's slowing down

Oh yea, Oh yea, I'm waiting for love

I need you now

Wait
