Marvel Hill

[unknown]

Strange to be on Marvel Hill
I've walked some years to find
I know there is a piece to fill

The gap I have in mind
No nothing's here I close my eyes
It's on the other side

And what I've worked so hard to gain
I'd gladly give away
'Cause I don't need this

I don't need it
I need more
A postcard from where life is a thrill

On top of Marvel Hill
But I don't need this
I don't need it

I need more
No, I don' t need this
Too good to be true

Too good to ignore
I don't need this
I need so much more

It's too much to ask
