

The Key

Kristin Hersh

Lightning and foam make a pelican fly
Copper and snow make a dusky blue boy
Your hair looks like copper
Your eyes look the sameWe dance all night
We dance all nightYou don't inspire a metric ton of trust
'Cause I'm on fire and so is all my stuffAnd we dance all night
And we dance all nightLightning and foam make a pelican fly
Copper and snow make a dusky blue boy
Your hair looks like copper
Your eyes look the sameWe dance all night
We dance all nightIf I lived in a pumpkin shell
I'd have the key
And if I had a daughter
She'd look a lot like meAnd we dance all night
(Dance all night)
And we dance all nightAnd we dance all night
(Dance all night)
And we dance all nightAnd we dance all night
(Dance all night)
And we dance all night
