

Your Girlfriends

Damone

run to the back
go and hide
i will keep you from breaking this heart of mine after the wash
take them home
keep their feet out of my ground so i come alone
on my time
your always there
and you know your girlfriends treat me so unfair
and your girlfriends treat me so unfair your girlfriends point at me and stare call my name
the carwash kid
come and make me change so i come back again i wanna sack
the girl in the brown
if she dont stop throwing all her trash on all my grounds
on my time
your girlfriends treat me so unfair
your girlfriends point at me and stare
