Stephen Malkmus & The Jicks

Getting on the floor
Everything and more
A fabulous start
There's no reason to
Get arrested or doomed
40 with a kid
Living on the grid
My resume speaks
Germanic wheels
You want it
You got it
The lockjaw with animus on it Have you no ears?
Have you no eyes?
You've got no idea of how to survive
Have you know tears?
Have you no heart?
You've got no idea what sets you apart And still you're winning
Do not save the date
It disintegrates
The rocks in my grain
The fabulous day just beginning to shine
I can see the truth
Is wasted on the youth
The parental magic is fading away for now
I'll be watching all the time
I'll be watching all the time
I'll be watching all the time Have you no ears?
Have you no eyes?
You've got no idea of how to survive
Have you know tears?
Have you no heart?
You've got no idea what sets you apart
You've got no idea what sets you a
You've got no idea what sets you
You have no idea what sets you apart
And still you're winning
