Abide

Liz Vice

Once I met this guy
Without hope and lonely night
We heard the calling, turn to you
Now they're there and barely move

Jesus, we will throw away our lives to follow you
Throwing in your strength
Resting in your truth
Jesus, you're so beautiful
You give vision to the pie
You lend us the hope of glory
And you, we will abide

Though the body waste away
Inside will renew as you remain
Live in glory for our ways
The lighter fiction of our days

Jesus, we will throw away our lives to follow you
Throwing in your strength
Resting in your truth
Jesus, you're so beautiful
You give vision to the pie
You lend us the hope of glory
And you, we will abide

With hope for tomorrow
We fight through today
With energy, you pump me word
We lift our hand and say
The mystery is known
You're on the throne
Darkness is overthrown

Help us to make you known
Make you known
Help us to make you known
Make you known
