

Surrender

Hangnail

As I watch the week played from my memory
I can't believe I let this go
The innocence is losing cover
Waiting for surrender of this tyranny
I guess you reap what you sow
And there's no shame in starting over
It could take some time for me to find
The peace that passes understanding all
Can't relax when losing track
Every trying moment takes its toll
Take a deep breath in and then forget about
The worries they won't go away
A troubled mind is seeking freedom
Feel the pressure forces quickly closing in
No matter what you think you know
The overwhelming truth is showing
It could take some time for me to find
The peace that passes understanding all
Can't relax when losing track
Every trying moment takes its toll
I'm giving over everything
Everything is yours
I'm giving over everything
Everything is yours
It could take
Take some time for me to find
The peace that passes understanding all
Can't relax when losing track
Every trying moment takes its toll
I'm giving over everything
Everything is yours
I'm giving over everything
Everything is yours
You gave me breath so I could sing
All I have is yours
I'm giving over everything
Everything is yours
You gave me breath so I could sing
All I have is yours
