

Burn!

Megadeth

I've got a sickening feeling
My life is standing still
It's clear that fate is closing in
But this is the life I choose
I've got so much time to kill
Born to lose, I'll die to win Burn, baby burn 'cause it feels so good I'm getting on my own nerves
And I get no satisfaction
Till I light it up and burn it down
One match lights my fire
And it starts a chain reaction
That burns my crooked past to the ground Burn, baby burn 'cause it feels so good Burn, baby burn like I knew it would
Fire, I've got the fire
Fire, burning desire my desire to burn
