Invasion

Belial's Bride

The world unified through technology. Lucifer embodies human flesh. Desensitized by his sweet disease, devouring the spiritually elect. Watchers of the time warn of the signs, all stand in line to give their heads. Scoffers mock the way of purity, repeating history: union causing death.

Liken to the days of Noah, behold the prophecy is being fulfilled.
The marriage covenant of the immoral: demonic persuasion instilled.
Hand your unborn and living children to the demon Molech: the murder of all the innocent.
The army of Satan rises from the east as humanity forsakes holiness.

The dragon commissions the bloodthirsty harlot to wage war upon the saints. Lucifer and his angels send forth their demons to delude the human race.

Hidden are the works of the blasphemous beast; hating the true sons of God! Miraculous deception, talks of peace; covenants written in blood.
Adulterous city, drawing nations, worshiping her idolatries. Rising jealousy, olive branch matured. The inheritance guilty of apostasy.

Who can resist the kingdom of Satan as he spews out his demons for war?!?
Magog rises up to march with the kings of defiance to Armageddon!
They come to rape the Holy Land of promise, the generation who denied the true messiah.
Adonai, with right hand lifted high; warned that war will be against every border!

Prince of the air, Lord of locust: seducing the nations with abominations.
As in the days of Noah: Nephilim rises to bring all kingdoms to desolation!

Father of lies, mother of prostitutes; the false prophet defy the living God.
We are invaded with the demons of idolatry as we forsake the covenant of love.

Seven year agreement. The nations thrive in sin. No one is seeking God, no one will understand.
Treaty will turn to war: unveiling illusion. Babylon's whore will burn: ending prostitution.
The vultures will gather: Lucifer's final march. Deceiving all nations. War with the camp of God. All consuming fire: purging all wickedness. Sins final contention. The earths desired Sabbath!
The end of an age. Wine press full of rage. The last generation. The great tribulation.
Beginning of the end. Destruction of all sin. The sheep and the goats: separation of the fold.
It is done!
