

Gameball

Rozwell Kid

Spinning by yourself as the grass grows up around you

Another champ dives through the turf

Staring at the Sun 'til you can't see what's around you

Another bored move to make it workI'm just being myself out here

I don't even know where to run

I just dance by myself out hereDrag your feet along as you watch it getting closer

Another big chance to let 'em down

Staring at their mouths as they scream about the target

Another big chance to make 'em proudI'm just being myself out here

I don't even know where to run

I just dance by myself out here

I just dance by myself out here
