First Time

Bobby Caldwell

Wise men wait,
They'll always put their trust in fate.
Fools never take the time,
For love to really grow.
They just don't know.
And lonely dreamers,
Wonder if they will ever find romance.
My heart knew it,
Till you shot your arrow thru it.For the first time,
Love is waiting at the door,
I've never felt this before.
Now I know the score.
Darling for the first time,
First time.No more nights,
Of missing the essential things.
You've brought back to my life,
And everything you are, feels so right.
Oh lonely dreamer,
Did you ever think we would find romance?
Lets get started, putting both are hearts into it!For the first time
Love is waiting at the door
There had to be something more
Now I know the score.
Darling for the first time, first timeI only want to do, the things that other lovers do.
And if you feel the same put your arms around me.
If your tired of being one who's just dreaming.Oh lonely dreamers wonder if they will ever find romance.
My heart knew it, till you shot your arrow thru it.For the first time
I know what I've been searching for
Their had to be something more
Now I know the scoreDarling for the first time
Love is waiting at the door
I've never felt this before
Now I know the score,
