Morning

Connie Lim

The morning goes out in a black, backless dress
Tired of waiting for me
She goes out for tea
Oh morning
Forgive me morningThe morning goes out with the mid afternoon
She stays out late at the corner caf
Oh morning
Forgive me morningNow here I am again sitting alone with the nighttime
Now here I am again sleepless and restless with nighttimeCHORUS:
Oh morning I think I know you but I really need another day to rest
Oh morning I think I need you to save me from nighttime
He holds me too tight
The nighttime tells me that I am his only light
I didnt know
Forgive me morningThe morning takes down her hair
As she cries because I wasnt there
The morning is always right
But she gives in to nightCHORUSI didnt know
