

Stare Me Down

Zeroes

Door is creaking
Curtains shaking
There's a shadow dancing on the ceiling
Room is empty
Filled with silence
Can you hear it, the screaming in the distance 'Cause there's a chill I feel under my skin
There's a hole in the center of my chest
And my heart is pounding like a kick drum
There's someone at the foot of my bed (Now I'm going to)
Stare me down
(have to)
Shake my bones
(you want to)
Bring me back
(I need you)
Give me hope Wilted flowers
By the window
A sudden breeze and there's broken glass on the floor Room is empty
Filled with violence
Can you hear it, the screaming in the distance? 'Cause there's a chill I feel under my skin
There's a hole in the center of my chest
And my heart is pounding like a kick drum
There's someone at the foot of my bed (Now I'm going to)
Stare me down
(have to)
Shake my bones
(you want to)
Bring me back
(I need you)
Give me hope (2X) 'Cause there's a side of you inside of me
We're haunted by a memory (X2)
And we're haunted by a memory (Now I'm going to)
Stare me down
(have to)
Shake my bones
(you want to)
Bring me back
(I need you)
Give me hope (Now I'm going to)

Stare me down
(have to)
Shake my bones
(you want to)
Break my heart
(I need you)
Give me hopeGive me hope
