Satellites

Luke Thompson

Verse 1
My eyes are too tired to cry so I'll just stare
My feet are too cold to step, so I'll stay right here
My hands too numb to feel you there
Heart's too hard to really care
Ears too shut to listen or to hear

Chorus
And sunlight threw me away
And I get lost in the day
If only the satellites could see
If only the satellites could see
You and me
Naked in the night

Verse 2
My head's too heavy to hold this tune tonight
My bones too hard to hold up this disguise
My words too tired to come out right
Kiss too dry, tongue too tied
Take off yours and I'll take off mine

Chorus
And sunlight threw me away
And I get lost in the day
If only the satellites could see
If only the satellites could see
You and me,
Naked in the night
Naked in the night
Naked in the night
Naked in the night

Bridge
We're showing off our broken hearts
Exposing everthing we are
Take off yours and I'll take off mine

And sunlight

--sunlight

{ then Chorus and Bridge}
