

These Illusions Are My Latest Addiction

Ghost Town

Oh shit, unwishful thinking
Unlawful damnation, come forth through the crowd
Speak up so loud that the dead can hear you screaming
Your words they have more meaning then you think That the friendly are listening
But really they're loathing
My world is exploding
Drop em like a bomb
So, I'll drop em like a bomb
Ignorance, so cliché, one hit of pure decay Wicked, wretched, catatonic
Lookin' for a place to vomit
Takin' on the fuckin' world,
A body at a time
Now ya sit in devils heaven,
Just before you know you're dead
I've got this itching, sinking feeling,
You're in someone else's bed Now the blood suckers begin to show their teeth
Your true color splattered on these walls in red
Smoke and mirrors they hide the spit behind your teeth
These illusions got me suffering It's not my fault
You can't be serious
Wicked, wretched, catatonic
Lookin' for a place to vomit
Take that bullshit elsewhere
You can't be serious
You must be delirious Sit tight this might get messy
We're painting the walls with these actions
If only they could speak
What happen should never leave
So tragic they won't believe Now the blood suckers begin to show their teeth
Your true color splattered on these walls in red
Smoke and mirrors they hide the spit behind your teeth
These illusions got me suffering No one knows,
No one care
No one seems to hear what isn't said
Too afraid to stand up
Too ashamed to say I deserve this!
I deserve this!
Letting go has set me free! Blood splattered, these illusions got me suffering
Blood splattered, these illusions got me suffering I deserve this!

I deserve this!
Letting go has set me free!(It's not my fault
You can't be serious
This is delirious
This can't be true
Why can't you see the truth
It's not my fault
You can't be serious
It's not my fault
You can't be serious
It's not my fault
You can't be serious
It's not my fault
You can't be serious)Now the blood suckers begin to show their teeth
Your true color splattered on these walls in red
Smoke and mirrors they hide the spit behind your teeth
These illusions got me suffering
