

Diamond (feat. Keith Urban)

Martina McBride

Solid as a rock
Priceless as they come
Raised out of the dust
You're tender and you're tough
Just shining in the sun Brilliant under pressure
Sharper than a knife
A not so hidden treasure
Deserves to hear forever
Who's holding you tonight Baby, you're a diamond
You're always gonna cut through
You just go on shining
Baby, you're a diamond
They're never gonna break you Love might let you down
Leave you lyin' in the dark
Those teardrops on your face
Ain't ever gonna change
How beautiful you are 'Cause baby, you're a diamond
You're always gonna cut through
You just go on shining
Baby, you're a diamond
They're never gonna break you, yeah
Never gonna break you, yeah Girl, you know I know you
I've seen you through it all
Remember that you're worth it
You're perfectly imperfect
Even with a couple flaws 'Cause that's the thing about a diamond
You're always gonna cut through
You just go on shining
Baby, you're a diamond
They're never gonna break you Yeah, baby, you're a diamond
Yes, you are
You're always gonna cut through
You just go on shining
Baby, you're a diamond
They're never gonna break you
They're never gonna break you
