Waiting

Mae

Once alone and too afraid of strangers knocking on my door
And when you came in I knew you'd win
I was sitting on the front porch swinging
And waiting
I tried walking with you in mind
Looking down saw my feet were tied
Got to thinking how easy it would be
Within the fear and the chains being a part of me
And I'm waiting
Always waiting
For my ride to pick me up
On my time
Seems I'm staying
As the others cross finish lines
I could break with the day
I could set into speed
But to tell you the truth
I'm always waiting
Always waiting
Caged in like the beautiful view
And I was waiting for the night when I could soar with you
And when you pick me up release me to fly
If I had only kept my own wings dry
I'm waiting
Always waiting
For my ride to pick me up

On my time
Seems I'm staying
As the others cross finish lines
I could break with the day
I could set into speed
But to tell you the truth
I'm always waiting
Always waiting
(Don't wanna fly...)
Always waiting
For my ride please pick me up
Tonight

I can't stay here
I know I can see the finish line
So I break with the day
And set into speed
But I'm driving away
Are you driving to me
To tell you the truth I'm always waiting
Always
Always we must find our ways (da da da)
Always (da da da)
All I could do was drive away
Always (da da da)
