Anthem

Naked Aggression

They say that I'm a loser cause I don't have fancy things
I don't have a fancy job don't wear no diamond rigs
Well they'll never know that the joke is on them
Cause I'm lucky go free don't got no worryin'
You can laugh at me and say I'm wrong
You can try and say that I'm a fool
But there's some things that I'll never change
Cause I know what's best for me
I say that I'm free cause there's nothing tying me down
I say that I'm lucky cause I got friends in many towns
I say I got no worrying' cause I got nothin' to prove Happiness is what matters cause it's one thing that is true
(chorus)
So when they put you down
For not livin' like them
Don't try to change your ways
Cause you'll regret it in the end
Why let them get you down
When they don't have a clue
Don't ever let them tell you
That they know what's best for you
(chorus)
