Silly, Stupid Freakin' Cupid

Distorted Penguins

If I said I loved you would you still be here
Or would you still be crying for the yesteryear
Caught upon the melody of good old Johny Cash
You got me feelin like I am living in the pastI feel kinda silly
I feel really silly
'Cause you jerked me around like you wanna kill me
I feel kinda stupid
I feel really stupid
Because I've been deceived be the man himself, Cupid
Lookin for a time or a place to deface myself or you, what can I do Feelin in the dark for a switch or a bitch, what I cannot find, but which is which
All in all it's none in none
Going in the eye of everyone
Peering through a glass of no rewards
I am not sure, but on my Lord
