Somewhere Across Forever

Stellastarr*

I'll run away with you
We can build a goldmine
We'll cross the Sahara child
I'll be the truth for youHome life, no life, I've been livin'here without you
New home, New York, I've been livin'here without you
I've been awake, we can build our own world
We can run away from ourselves if we knew who we wereBlue eyes, blue hair, not going to leave here without you
Blew my chances, chances, chances Ooh Let's go
When I finally find the words I'll be coming back to you
If I decide to rule the world I'm still coming back for you...For you [X16][Mandy's backround vocals:]Dreamin' what your seeing and knowing that I can read it, it's all for youI can see it in your eyes and even though I lied, it was all for youHere I am waiting without you
