

Heart of Gold (Demo 2005)

Burning Point

I hear the voice calling out my name
Without a choice I have to live with this pain... deep inside I see myself as an image of the hurt
I locked you out... will I ever learn...
Will I ever learn...? Stranger came - it brought me to my knees
Devil's game another day is deceased
Live or die - my options are growing short The darkness reveals all it's secrets to me
From this unknown land that no one has seen
The beast will arise from the depths of my soul
It's the end of the Heart of gold
I sealed the fate when I try to ease the pain
And at the gates I bow my head down with a shame... I can't take it Anymore...
Out of focus- reality's swept away
Am I just a pawn in this devil's play ...in this devil's play Stranger came - it brought me to my knees
Devil's game another day is deceased
Live or die - my options are growing short
The darkness reveals all it's secrets to me
From this unknown land that no one has seen
The beast will arise from the depths of my soul
It's the end of the Heart of gold
