

Far Away from Me (feat. Amy K)

Butch Clancy

(intro up to this is the chopped up version of the beginning)

The stars that want me, all i've been chasing

You up and down, just in case you need me

Can't make you choose between your heart and your head

I'll walk you through the parts I understand Oh, it takes you to another place

Oh, it takes you far away from me

Why do you go and I can't follow

I hate to watch you fall apart

Oh, why must you be this hurt and alone

Oh, you know it breaks my heart

Oh, you know it breaks my heart Hold on, hold on, don't you leave me alone

Already gone, you slipped inside yourself

I could give up and let your troubles have you

It's hard to love the stranger you've turned into Oh, it takes you to another place

Oh, it takes you far away from me

Why do you go and I can't follow

I hate to watch you fall apart

Oh, why must you be this hurt and alone

Oh, you know it breaks my heart

Oh, you know it breaks my heart
