Guts

Micky & The Motorcars

Written by Micky BraunEven I could see that it was my faultI didnt have the guts to leave youI just thought that it would fall apartAnd in time that we would be throughBut not this timeNo, not this timeIt was apparent you were falling in loveAll I could see is I wasnt good enoughAnd Ive never been good at breaking heartsIve tried and I just fall apartAnd I dont know what to say or what to doAll I know is Im trying not to hurt youI dont know what the hell could be wrong with meI just always try to run awayI guess that I could try to be happyBut in time everybodys gotta payBut not this timeNo, not this timeIt was apparent you were falling in loveAll I could see is I wasnt good enoughAnd Ive never been good at breaking heartsIve tried and I just fall apartAnd I dont know what to say or what to doAll I know is Im trying not to hurt youAll I know is Im trying not to hurt youAll I know is Im trying not to hurt you
