

Souls

Chantal Kreviazuk

Messages from where I used to grow
Twenty thousand frames of mind
This is my soul Relentless where I'm most alone
Twenty thousand faceless names
This is your show And, oh, I feel I am a wandering
A fleeting transient Soul
All I feel is I am holding on
But only for a moment then it's gone Covenant, we will always grow
Our skin will fade transcend beyond
All we've been told I feel I am the wandering
A fleeting transient Soul
All I feel is I am holding on
But only for a moment, then it's gone And oh, all I feel is I am holding on
But only for a moment, then it's gone Heal me, I'm healed when you see me
You see me when you feel me Souls
All I feel is I am holding on
But only for a moment, then it's gone And oh, all I feel is I am holding on
But only for a moment, then it's gone It's gone
It's gone
It's gone
It's gone
It's gone
