Laser Enforcer

Slough Feg

I try to make you understand
That there are forces in this universe
that you cannot comprehend X-Rated beam is in my hand, and when it's pointed at you You'll change but you won't know whenWitness your parallel in time
For this is a more than senseless crimeI try and make you see the light And when it's shining through you, you'll burn into the next century No need to count no need to find, that such my learned friend Abuses just feed technology
This is the animal inside Resistance is always pacified
This is the end of all you know
To witness the one that steals the showI try to make you understand
That there are forces in this universe
that you cannot comprehend X-Rated demons in my hand,
and when it's pointed at you You'll change but you won't know when Witness your parallel in time
For this is a more than senseless crime
This is the end of all you know
A mutated animation grows!
