

There's Nothing Worse

Close To Home

This night is alive with a hint of a smile,
And a long stare from your eyes,
I'm feeling weak at the knees,
Its getting harder to breathe,
Ive waited all night just to say I have been waiting for the right time to say,
But the right time never comes,
Tell me why am I wasting every breath that I take,
On something that will never come my way This lonely road that were sitting upon is getting longer by the day,
I cannot take anymore, I'm slowly losing control,
Ive waited all night just to say Chorus You did me wrong
You did me wrong You take your time,
Ive waited all night just to say
