See You Again

Loreen

Damn you so good I want you bad
Cries in my heart losing my head
'Cause I want you see you again (see you again)It feels so right, right to be wrong
Skin touching skin turning me on
Oh I need to see you again'Cause you don't know my know my know my name
But will know it know it if you stay
Baby I feel it do you feel the same
I gotta knowAll of my life where have you where have you been
Will I see you again , I gotta see you again
After tonight I wonder I'm wondering
Will I see you again , I gotta see you again
Now I gotta see you againDon't break me off I'm breaking down
Making me wait but I know now
How I want to see you again'Cause you don't know my know my know my name
But will know it know it if you stay
Baby I feel it do you feel the same
I gotta knowAll of my life where have you where have you been
Will I see you again , I gotta see you again
After tonight I wonder I'm wondering
Will I see you again , I gotta see you again
Now I gotta see you again, again
Now I gotta see you again, againAll of my life where have you where have you been
Will I see you again , I gotta see you again
After tonight I wonder I'm wondering
Will I see you again , I gotta see you again
Now I gotta see you again,
