

Romeo & Juliet

Joe Goldmark

I'm not your Juliet and you're not Romeo
But I will love you, baby, time will show I'll give you everything and that's no compromise
 See my broken wings to your alibis
 Crying ninety tears, no sacrifice
 Broken souvenirs in paradise Oh, I never promised you love
 Oh, when my heart is not enough
Oh, it's like an ocean of love to me I'm not your Romeo and you're not Juliet
 After the curtain falls, I'll drive you mad
Oh, baby heaven, just sweet heaven has sent you I'm not your Romeo and you're not Juliet
 But I will love you, love you, love you, drive you mad
Oh, baby, there will never be another you Love on the telephone, it's killing me
 I'll sail my ship alone, old memory
 Back to Babylon, in my fantasy
 Gonna lock my heart and losing the key Oh, I never promised you love
 Oh, when my heart is not enough
Oh, it's like an ocean of love to me I'm not your Romeo and you're not Juliet
 After the curtain falls, I'll drive you mad
Oh, baby heaven, just sweet heaven has sent you I'm not your Romeo and you're not Juliet
 But I will love you, love you, love you, drive you mad
Oh, baby, there will never be another you I'm not your Romeo and you're not Juliet
 After the curtain falls, I'll drive you mad
Oh, baby heaven, just sweet heaven has sent you I'm not your Romeo and you're not Juliet
 But I will love you, love you, love you, drive you mad
 Oh, baby, there will never be another you
 Another you, another you
