Rose Colored Glasses

Transatlantic

Everybody's sayin that we should get back together,
And everybody's sayin that we're meant to be together.
Everybody's sayin how the love was so damn perfect,
And I ain't never seen a bit of it, don't think it's worth it.
'Cos they ain't been through the things that you put me through,
And they ain't seen all the things that I seen in you
And they ain't never cried the tears you made me cry,
So they can't be the judge 'cos...
They don't know, what I know
They never seen that part of you,
They know the lies, I know the truth.
They say stay, I say go
They never seen our scars before,
They think our love is beautiful.
'Cos everything is beautiful when you're lookin through
Rose colored glasses.
Everything seems amazin when you see the view in
Rose colored glasses.
Take 'em off.
Everybody's thinkin I was just too scared to love you,
Got 'em all believin that I folded under pressure
It's crazy how I gave my best,
I tried so hard to love you,
I can't believe that all this time, my pain just bought you pleasure but,
They ain't been through the things that you put me through and
They ain't seen all the things that i seen in you and
They ain't never cried the tears you made me cry,
So they can't be the judge 'cos...
They don't know, what I know

They never seen that part of you,
They know the lies, I know the truth.
They say stay (they say stay), I say go (I say go)
They never seen our scars before,
They think our love is beautiful.
'Cos everything is beautiful when you're lookin through
Rose colored glasses.
Everything seems amazin when you see the view in
Rose colored glasses.

Take 'em off.
Hey (take 'em off)
no (take 'em off)
Yeah (echo x4)
Take 'em off, take 'em off!
Take 'em off (ohhhohhhohhh)
Take 'em off, off, off
'Cosss...
They don't know, what I know (what I know)
They never seen that part of you,
They know the lies, I know the truth.
They say stay (they say stay), I say go (now I say go)
They never seen our scars before,
They think our love (so beautiful) is beautiful.
'Cos everything is beautiful when you're lookin through
Rose colored glasses.
Everything seems amazin when you see the view in
Rose colored glasses.
Take 'em off.
