

Be Careful

Keybone

Be careful with what you wish for
You just might get it, you just might get it
Be careful with what you wish for
You just might, you just might Can't help but notice you noticing me, you have been policing me
I'm not a star, what makes you think the role is in me?
Don't expect me to grant wishes, be ambitious
Ain't that what your Mom, Grand and Aunt teaches?
Life on its own is a school of thought
Either you are raised on a street, drive, avenue or boulevard
The craft on it's own in the school of art is never enough
So far you are going hard, the road may be rough
But there's a light around the bend, a fight until the end
With a planet to defend, can't be bothered about trolls
Or be all that about lows, that's written by Dow Jones
For me and my household, it's God and not gold
Before you start making requests and no results be making you stress
Notice us and faking you are blessed
Don't try to fake it till you make it, even jail break it
If you can't pray to The Lord, stop singing Hail Mary
Be careful with what you wish for
You just might get it, you just might get it
Be careful with what you wish for
You just might, you just might Do not step to this, he ain't Hercules
Rather than hating, better pay respect to His Excellency
None other but Key is the Sensei
Puts them in a frenzy, who is this MC?
I put my twos up, but because the dude was boozed up
The butterfly in his belly blew up, then he threw up
I'm far from an average Joe or what's on a talent show
But I will flip without whipping it like Silento
My gift's a curse, on you, it might get worse
To uplift of course, I ain't backing the wrong horse
Putting my money where my mouth is, I know all about this
From days of drawers to bumping to Kris Kross
Your ways are yours, while I'm carrying Key's cross
Here's a path I chose, to always keep our flag waving
And gag saving, ain't no superhero though
Some started from the bottom, we started from way below
Be careful with what you wish for

You just might get it, you just might get it
Be careful with what you wish for
You just might, you just mightI see you are taunting, happy home haunting
Had to put my mic on to give you a little something
If what you really wants war, what do you think I'm in the front for?
It started as a hobby, now can't go through the lobby
Without shoulder jabbing somebody, should you be grabbing up the same mic
Paint a picture with the frame right
Get that with y'all, get your game tight
Don't be acting unlawfully or be asking awfully
You ain't getting cos you have been asking wrongfully
I am yours truly, there's no denying that, there's no lie in that I was writing raps when you were reciting craps
But a prophet is never known especially around his own
On the day he is fully blown and then due for the throne
He will never fail a test like turn bread to a stone
Never will a jester mess with this, I'm extra blessed with this
To all occasions, it's proper that I'm dressed to pleaseBe careful with what you wish for
You just might get it, you just might get it
Be careful with what you wish for
You just might, you just might
