

Waiting for My Lucky Day

Chris Isaak

Written by: Chris Isaak

I watched the sun roll down in Texas.

Out on the edge of town in Texas.

I keep on hanging round in Texas.

Waiting for my lucky day.

Lost everything I had in Texas.

A million dreams went by in Texas.

Sometimes the same life turns against us.

But I'm waiting for my lucky day.

I watch the sun go down, I keep hanging on waiting for the wind to change.

I watch the sun go down, And I keep hanging on, I know it's coming up again.

The friends I had are all gone in Texas.

Sometimes you stand alone in Texas.

Just when it all goes wrong in Texas.

I'm waiting for my lucky day.

I watch that sun go down, I keep hanging on, waiting for the wind to change.

I watch the sun go down, And I keep hanging on, waiting for my lucky day.

Waiting for my lucky day, waiting, for my lucky day.
