

Here We Go Again

The Isley Brothers

Well, yeah, oh What do you do when you love somebody
And everything is goin wrong? Oh, no
Nobody knows the way you feel about it
Cause only you know, you cant leave it alone Oh, here we go again, oh, here we go again
I thought what we had was over
Here we go again, ooh, hoo
Oh, here we go again What do you do when you love somebody
And you decide to go it alone? Oh, no, no
It never pays to give up on someone
When on the inside the feelin is strong Oh, here we go again, oh, here we go again
I thought what we had was over now
(Here we go again)
Ooh, baby, oh, here we go again, ah After all weve been through, baby, yeah
I keep comin back to you now
Out of all the women in the world
I keep comin back to you, yeah, baby What do you do when you love somebody
And realize youre walkin away? Oh, no, no
You hesitate when its time for leavin
You and I know its never too late Oh, here we go again, here we go again
Dont ever say its over now
(Here we go again)
Ooh, baby, here we go again, oh After all weve been through, baby, well
I keep comin back to you now
Out of all the sweet women of the world
I keep comin back to you, yeah, baby, oh After all weve been through, baby, yeah
I keep comin back to you now
Out of all the sweet women of the world
I keep comin back to you, yeah, baby
